

I believe that there needs to be more time and more disclosure on the issue of media cross-ownership. This is a serious issue, as it limits competition and therefore different viewpoints to have single ownership by corporations of all media outlets. I am not in favor of this, and I do not believe that the general public has been made aware of the dangers of this issue. I believe much more time and study is needed.

Thank you,

Deborah Middleton